HELP NEEDED FOR OUR LIBRARY

The Fairlington Branch Library, located upstairs in the Shirlington Theatre building, urgently needs volunteers in order that the present library hours may be maintained. The volunteer members of the staff are asked to work one afternoon OR one evening a week on a regular schedule. Afternoon hours are from 2 to 5 p.m. and evening hours from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. (These are the regular library hours.)

It's our public library -- let's support it.
If you can help, call the librarian, Mrs. Whiteleather, OV-5911.

HOME DEMONSTRATION UPHOLSTERING CLINIC

Is your favorite chair in need of reupholstering? Do the springs in a cushion need retying? If so, come to the Fairlington Home Demonstration Club all-day (10 a.m. to 3 p.m.) reupholstering clinic January 18 at the Fairlington Methodist Church on Leesburg Pike.

Those interested in attending may bring their own chair to work on, or may observe the work of others. Those wishing to work on their own furniture are asked to call either Mrs. P. W. Melton at TE-4531 or Mrs. Paul Hill at OV-6394 for a list of materials and tools which will be needed.

This reupholstering clinic is the first meeting of the Fairlington Home Demonstration Club. A full year's program has been planned. The regular meetings will be held on the third Tuesday of each month. Following are the programs for the next three months:
